

BREEDING ANSWERS

1. friendly and outgoing
2. 6-8 weeks
3. gently remove it
4. two weeks
5. The puppy comes out bottom first.
6. Any dog under one year old.
7. 30-60 minutes
8. died
9. To prevent the mother from rolling over and crushing the puppies.
10. litter
11. Tie a cotton thread about 1 ½” from the puppy and cut it on the mother’s side of the thread.
12. mother’s first milk
13. A puppy not getting enough milk.
14. diarrhea, lack of energy, death
15. A bitch in heat.
16. None
17. Breeding closely related dogs.
18. 21 days
19. 16 weeks
20. 8-9 weeks
21. The pedigree with three generations and an AKC registration application form.
22. 4 months

23. 14-21 days
24. mother or dam
25. It causes diarrhea
26. size, temperament, coat length, and color
27. 63 days
28. It's the best time to bond with the new owners.
29. swelling of the vulva
30. tube feed
31. A written record of a dog's genealogy of three generations or more.
32. placenta
33. morning
34. Through colostrums in the mother's first milk.
35. You won't know what the dog may look like or even its size until it's older.
36. By tube feeding and keeping it warm.
37. 10 months